root to ideas

About Us

Sardar Vallabhbhai National Institute of technology, Surat (NIT Surat), perceives to be a globally accepted centre of excellence in technical education catalysing the transfer of high technologies resulting in enhanced quality.

Research park brings to you Dotslash - an inception towards letting our innovations begin. Our focus is on letting your imagination flow free and enable you to push the boundaries of what can be done.
We're open for all!

We'll take care of food and stay -virtually leaving you no excuse to not build something that'll blow our minds.

What's a Hackathon?

Hack + Marathon = Hackathon

A Hackathon is a venue that brings community and technology together to focus on creative problem solving.

Purpose of Dotslash

Dotslash - a root to ideas is a venture by Research park and students of NIT Surat which aims at encouraging young and enthusiastic minds to code, create and develop unique and eccentric solutions to real life problems.

Dotslash is an event which would provide an environment to the developers where they can test their skills, know their true potential and contribute to the society by developing out of the box solutions.
